Visit Lubbock Hosts Delta Kappa Gamma Texas State Organization Convention

(LUBBOCK, TX) - Visit Lubbock welcomes the Delta Kappa Gamma (DKG) Texas State Organization Convention to the "Hub City" from June 15 - 18 at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center.

Over 600 women from the Delta Kappa Gamma Society International will meet in Lubbock to promote the professional and personal growth of women educators and excellence in education by following the organization's four principles: nurture, serve, educate, and wonder.

Bear Mills is the keynote speaker at the Lubbock Convention. Mills' life goal is to pay it forward in respect to all those who have helped him become a success. He has been privileged to be named Texas Teacher of the Year, James Madison Scholar, Fulbright Scholar, a John Ben Sheppard Fellow in Leadership Ethics and the Walmart Foundation Teacher of the Year in 1997. Mills is also a published author. He believes that his accomplishments verify that others' investments in him have paid dividends and that he is in a position to help others realize their dreams. He will be discussing "Being a Person of Hope in a World where Hope is on the Endangered Species List."

Shalan Inmon, DKG Texas state organization president, says attendees will be edified and empowered throughout the entirety of this convention.

"Let the Wind Guide Your Journey. Have faith in your journey. Everything had to happen exactly as it did to get you where you're going next," she said.
